Kevin Fowler has topped the Texas Country Music Chart with his "Best Mistake I Ever Made," the second single off of the artist's current album, Bring It On (Equity Music Group). The video for the hit single is being played nationally on both CMT and GAC networks. "Best Mistake" soared to #1 less than a month after its release, as did the first single, "Long Line of Losers".

Quite the success in the Texas Country Music scene, Fowler recently performed at the Houston Rodeo & Livestock Show on March 5th, in front of tens of thousands of fans. His current tour includes fairs, festivals, and larger venues across Texas, as well as Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Fowler is nominated for two Texas Twister Music Awards, including Favorite Texas Artist and Favorite Repeat Offender (the artist who is seen the most)
