Country singer King Cone, 24, of Decatur is touring Texas with his new release, "Gallery," and will make live recordings when he performs in Dallas on Nov. 3-4.

Performances will be recorded at 11 p.m. Friday, Nov. 3, at Adair's Saloon, 2624 Commerce St. in Dallas and at 10:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 4, at The Green Elephant, 5627 Dyer St. in Dallas.

Cover charge is complimentary for the Nov. 3 performance. For information call (214) 939-9900.

Tickets for the Nov. 4 performance are $7. For information call (214) 750-6625.

The first single from Cone's album is titled "Go with Me." It was released to radio in September and features spunky and funky lead guitar and snappy percussion from Cone's band, The Tailgate Philharmonic.

Cone will donate $1 from each CD purchased to the American Cancer Society.
