7 days of live music

COURTNEY DEVORES

We're about to launch into this fall's busiest week for the area's bigger live-music venues. So without further ado, here's a seven-day forecast that will keep you grooving all week long -- no matter how you're feeling.

Saturday

Feeling reckless? "Hick rockers" Reckless Kelly, who did a sold-out show with Big Head Todd and the Monsters at Visulite Theatre last February, play rock 'n' roll with a fiddle at Neighborhood Theatre. 8 p.m. $12-$15.
