One of the musical harbingers of spring is blooming a little earlier this year.

The Cavender Chevrolet Live Music Series at the County Line will begin Wednesday, about a week earlier than usual.

- The South Austin Jug Band will make its debut at Casbeers on Saturday. For those unfamiliar with the string band, it has a sound that bluegrass purists would sneer at while lovers of good, roots-based original music would applaud.

Of course, the band's from Austin. But there is no jug. And there is not much of what you would call bluegrass. Expect some new tunes from "Strange Invitation," which will hit store shelves on April 1. The title comes from a line in "Jackass," by alternative rocker Beck —the album's only
